POEM: Spring Fever

The flowers are blooming out in the yard. The birds are singing and it's really hard to do my work on such a beautiful day when I'd rather go out in the yard to play. I've got spring fever bad, but it's the best fever I've ever had. You're not sick. It's not like the flu when you stay in bed and take medicine, too. To cure spring fever, you don't stay in bed; you go outside and play instead!

LOOKING AHEAD:

Trip to Ontario Science Centre – April 16th.

Night @ the Museum – May 12th.
Students will be showcasing their 'creative works'.

Please return report card envelopes. Thanks.
