

Miss Grant's

GUIDE TO GRADE 4!

This past week was a great week for the grade fours! They showed great determination as they worked through more difficult division problem, exercised their creativity in STEM and displayed their research in our Black History Month Projects.

Looking forward to next week.... There are some big surprises in store for the students. These secrets will be revealed to the students on Monday! I will update parents through seesaw as we go!

For the Month:

Luke 24:5-6

“Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen!

Sneak Peek Into Next Week:

Math: We are ending our multiplication and division unit with a test on Monday.

Science: We are continuing our new unit of Pulleys and Gears!

Bible: We are learning the story of Jesus dying and rising again.

F2: We are moving into a new unit. This unit will review visual tools that we have already used. For this unit, we will all be reading the same book!

Language: We will be learning about the importance of writing to an audience and creating poster advertisements.
